SPECIAL DELIVERY FROM THE NORTH POLE

I have arrived!

Hello! I have arrived from the North Pole.

Dear _____,

My job is to watch, to help and to report back to Santa each night. While you sleep I fly home to tell him all about your day, and by morning I am back, somewhere new in your house. You will have to look for me.

There is one important rule: please do not touch me, or my Christmas magic may fade. You can talk to me, though, and I will listen to every word.

I am going to stay with you until Christmas Eve. I think we are going to have the most wonderful time.

Love from _____

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

The elf rules

1 Please do not touch me, or my magic may fade.

2 Talk to me any time. I am a very good listener.

3 Each night I fly to the North Pole to report to Santa.

4 Each morning I land somewhere new. Can you find me?

5 I may get up to a little mischief now and then.

6 I go home on Christmas Eve, with Santa.
